Elba High Peer Helpers speak on spreading positivity to city council

Two of Elba High School' Peer Helpers attended the Elba City Council meeting Monday evening, Sept. 22, to discuss the ongoing efforts of the school's peer helper's program.

Emerson Eldridge and Hannah Brown represented the group. They were accompanied at the meeting by Elba High School counselor Ashley Brunson.

Eldridge said the program started last year with about six students involved, but she said it has grown exponentially this year with around 20 more students joining the Peer Helpers group.

The young ladies noted that September is Suicide Awareness month, and in recognition of that the EHS Peer Helpers created and distributed flyers throughout the school during the month of September that included positive messages and mental health resources for students.

"We placed these flyers in areas where they could be easily picked up," Eldridge said.

The purpose of the flyers was to provide encouragement, motivation, or simply let a fellow student know they are not alone.

"We wanted to let them know someone cares and support is available," said Eldridge.

The EHS Peer Helpers plan to have a different theme each month of the school year to promote well-being, kindness and connection.

"In December, we will place a Christmas tree in a central location of the school, like the lunchroom or main hall, and invite students to write compliments or kind messages on paper ornaments," Brown

Enterprise Rescue nominated for Association of Air Medical Services Community Impact Award

Enterprise Rescue has been nominated for the 2025 AAMS Community Impact Award, the Association of Air Medical Services announced last Friday.

The AAMS Community Impact Award recognizes outstanding contribution to transport medicine which resulted in expanded access, increased health care equity, preserved or broadenedservices, improved medical transport solvency, strengthened business continuity, enhanced patient advocacy, or improved a foundational element of medical transport that gives hope for a brighter future.

"We're appreciative of AAMS for first recognizing our company in this way," said Anthony Cole, CEO, Enterprise Rescue. "We like to think of ourselves as a small fish in a big pond, so to have an international association hand-pick us out of several deserving nominees is a big honor for our company and our employees who pour their hearts into this business."

Some notable 2024 awardees for the honor include the American Ambulance Association, the International Association of Fire Chiefs, and the National Association of Emergency Medical Technicians.

An Enterprise Rescue helicopter is shown landing at Gamecock Stadium in New Brockton prior to a recent football game where a local soldier was delivered home to his family. Enterprise Rescue has been nominated for the 2025 AAMS Community Impact Award, the Association of Air Medical Services.

The nomination will be recognized – and the winner announced – at AMTC25 in Omaha, Nebraska, on Tuesday, Oct. 28, as part of the Air Medical Transport Conference. Enterprise Rescue is nominated alongside LifeMed Alaska and Primary Care Flight Paramedic (PCFP) and Advanced Care Flight Paramedic (ACFP) Program.

Enterprise Rescue is an employee-owned, nonprofit ambulance service operating 24/7. What started out as a volunteer service back in 1963 transitioned from what was then EnterpriseRescue Squad to now Enterprise Rescue Inc., as of 1997.

With just seven original community members operating it, ERI has now blossomed to more than 200 employees, with coverage spanning from its original roots in Coffee County, to operations now in Covington, Clarke, and Monroe Counties.

The Coffee County Commission recently recognized several senior center employees with service awards. Those receiving awards included James Moultry, serving 10 years as a driver for the New Hope Sr. Center; Patricia Hodge, serving 16 years as the Zion Chapel Center manager; Conzuella Banks, serving 10 years as the New Hope Center manager; and Sandra Eleazor, serving 11 years as driver for the Mt. Pleasant Center. The employees each received an acrylic trophy and a Coffee County pin. Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder

Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression

A special Tales from Yonder in honor of Elba High School's Homecoming this week!

When Cuzin Lou Lou was a child, she loved to visit Papa's oldest brother and his family. While there she seemed to always end up in her cousin's room playing with his record player. She was fascinated by it!

One of his record's was Survivor's "Eye of the Tiger" which was a favorite for Lou Lou. She woul spend hours alone in her cousin's room listening to and singing along with that record.

Trying not to bother everyone else in the house, Lou Lou would wear headphones, crank it up, and blare the words out! She was having the time of her life in that bedroom singing away.

It never crossed Lou Lou's mind that the 'joyful noise' she was making sounded more like coyotes howling to everyone else in the house!

Lou Lou was in her own little world with that record player, and she could sing as loudly as her lungs would allow...it was fantastic! Yet, there was a downside that never crossed her mind.

Lou Lou was putting on a not so welcome concert for everyone! They couldn't even hear the music...all they heard was "it's the Eye of the Tiger" screamed over and over and over!

To this day, some members of Lou Lou's extended family do not even listen to that song thanks to her endless concerts! And, if the song is ever mentioned...Lou Lou is reminded of her carefree "singing' days!

That's probably why she is very careful about who and when she sings around now! Lou Lou will still give it her best shot every once and a while trying to be that carefree singer again, but she tones the volume down quite a bit...well, except for when her only audience is Sister! Then, it's game on.

Lou Lou was living her best life all those years ago standing in front of that record player...it mattered not to her who heard or how it sounded. These days, she'll still belt the song out all along, but mostly just to aggravate Sister...so she has come full circle!

Lou Lou is still living her best life with the "Eye of the Tiger!" Joyful noise or not!!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

Elba Pee Wee Cheerleaders are excited for Homecoming!

Windy Thoughts

with Linda Hodge, Publisher

We heard the reports last Saturday from the Elba Marching Tiger Band's trip to Rehobeth for a marching band festival, and the news was all good! Not only did the band deliver a 'superior' performance and receive all 1's at the event, but the students also caught attention in the way they represented the school and community. Reportedly, several people from other bands and communities at the event took notice to how well-behaved the Elba students were and made sure to mention that to the band leaders. Now, while the superior ratings for the band's performance make us smile, it was the reports on the students' behavior that really had us gleaming. Well done band leaders, school administrators and parents and guardians! Your hardwork is paying off and showing off!

We have noticed several "wet" areas around town lately that could only be contributd to water leaks. One such was in the area of Riverview Drive. We had to visit that area over the weekend and when we reached Riverview Drive there was a huge puddling of water at the end of that street. Our first thought was that we were glad we were on our Jeep, otherwise we might have been afraid to drive over that big 'ole puddle of water. A resident on the road said it had been like that for quite a long time, and he believes it to be a water leak that has not been fixed. We know the city's water department stays busy and works hard each and every day to handle issues that arise, but we suggest someone go take a look at the end of Riverview Drive because there is definitely an issue there now!

During the most recent Elba City Council meeting, it was noted that the representatives from MDI had assured the city folks that lids to garbage cans would be closed after emptying beginning Oct. 6th if not before. We were told the reasoning behind not closing the lids prior was to let the driver's of the garbage trucks know that another had already been down a road. Apparently, by Oct. 6th, only one garbage truck will be in town at a time. If there needs to be an excuse as to why the employees couldn't take a half second before to simply shut the lids to the cans...we guess the one provided is as good as any...even if we don't really buy it. Oh well. As long as the issue is fixed, let's just go with the flow.

It's Homecoming Week in Elba! We welcome all alumni back to town and hope all have a great celebration!

Calling ALL Elba High School Alumni and Friends!

Annual membership drive kicks off with Homecoming

Alumni Association Breakfast set for Saturday morning at 8 a.m.

The Elba High School Alumni Association will hold a homecoming breakfast/meeting Saturday, Oct. 4, at the Elba Country Club beginning at 8 am. Breakfast will be a dutch treat meal. You do not have to eat to attend the meeting and catch up with other alumni.

Come hear updates on things your Elba High School Alumni Association has been able to do over the years to help Elba City Schools. We've had some fun projects this past year!

Your $20 per year membership fee helps enable the association to complete projects to help the schools and provide scholarships annually to Elba High School seniors!

Over the past 10 years, the alumni association has provided scholarship dollars totaling over $30,000 with at least $3,000 paid out each year to graduating seniors of the school! On top of that, the alumni association uses funds raised to also support Elba City Schools with other activities and events.

Elba Alumni Association president Linda Hodge said the association has expended over $20,000 through the years to buy equipment for classrooms, help fund trips for students to national conferences and more, renovate audio equipment at the football field, and much more!

This year, the association is pushing its membership drive to be sure to have as many alumni or friends of alumni signed up to be a part of this organization! "We can't do what we do without our members, so, please consider joining or renewing your membership today," said Hodge.

The EHS Alumni Association needs $4,000 each year to accomplish its mission of awarding a $1,500 scholarship to a male and female senior each and to meet other needs identified by the school. It would only take 200 members to join or renew a membership at $20 to reach that goal.

"Our high school education was the platform for our careers," said Hodge. "The membership of $20 for alums and/or friends of Elba High School is a small yearly amount to give back, and our school needs us and our support. If each class will ask members to renew or join, we can easily reach our goal."

The Class of 1971 has jumped on this wagon and is challenging other classes to meet or exceed the membership goal. The membership drive begins this week with Homecoming and will continue throughout the month of October.

Checks can be sent to the Elba High School Alumni Association at PO Box 182, Elba AL 36323; or pay on the morning of the Homecoming Breakfast.

Also, there will be a table set up prior to the start of the homecoming football game on Oct. 3rd by the gates for those who wish to pay that night.

Please be sure to provide your year of graduation and an email address when signing up for membership or renewing an ongoing membership.

"I sure hope you will join us for the breakfast Saturday morning, Oct 4, at the country Elba Country Club," Hodge said. "It should be a fun time."

said. "This will be a visual celebration of kindness and encouragement of the holiday spirit. Small words can make a difference."

Eldridge and Brown said the main goal of the Peer Helpers program is to encourage kindness and emotional support to grow the strength of the school and students.

Elba City Council members thanked the young ladies for their presentation and offered full support to their efforts.

Coping With the Death of a Parent: Secondary Losses

The loss of a parent brings about many challenging emotions. However, once the initial shock and grief subside, you may find you are grieving all over again. This is what is commonly called "secondary loss." Secondary loss is the grief we feel over the additional losses that result from a death.

Our parents bring us into the world, nurture us through childhood, guide and support us as we grow, and perhaps remain our principal advisors well into our adult years. You haven't just lost a parent, but also likely an advisor, role model, and friend. So once they die, we may find we have lost more than just a parent. We have lost things like a support system, financial security, and maybe even our sense of self.

It's not unusual for adult children to still seek a parent's advice before they make large purchases or investments. Perhaps your parent was your counselor on child-rearing, relationships, cooking, or health. Once your parent is gone you have lost their wisdom and their listening ear.

For you and your siblings, the family home was probably the natural place for your reunions. Without your parent here to host, holiday gatherings may change or not even occur anymore.

Even if you were quite independent from your parents, you may still experience some kinds of secondary losses. You may have hoped to someday make your parents proud of your career accomplishments and now realized they won't see you fulfill those goals. You may also regret your parent won't see your own children grow up.

If you are older, the death of a parent removes a psychological buffer between you and your own mortality. As your generation becomes the oldest in your family, you may be nagged with the feeling of "I'm next."

While dealing with secondary loss can be difficult, just as with your initial feelings of grief, it is perfectly normal. Talk to friends and family about your feelings and know that eventually, you will start to feel accustomed to this new stage of life.

Views From The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Our number one grandson Lawson got his driver's manual last week and is now studying to take the test that will allow him to get his learner's permit. Lawson has ridden many miles in the front seat over the years with his Mom driving, and while his Mom is just a little apprehensive about teaching him how to drive, I have no doubt whatsoever that he will be one of the most cautious and careful drivers on the roadway. Another lesson is growing up!

For what it is worth….

 The Elba Tigers saw their record slip to 0-6 and their losing streak reach seven games last week with a 48-21 road loss to the Goshen Eagles. The Tigers fell behind 17-0 in the first quarter and trailed 48-7 late in the third quarter before they put together a pair of scoring drives in the final stanza to make the final score sound closer than it actually was as they were simply out-manned by a bigger and more physical football team. The Elba offense scored twenty points or more for the fourth straight game and rolled up almost 300 yards in total offense, but committed five turnovers that proved way too much to overcome. Cassidy Carpenter rushed for 126 yards as the Tigers had a running back go over the 100-yard mark for the fourth straight game, and sophomore quarterback Powell Bane turned in a gutty performance as he rushed for a touchdown and passed for a score in fourth quarter action. There is an old saying in football circles that 'It isn't the X's and O's, but the Jimmies and Joes that win football games," and while that was true again Friday night, after six games it looks to me like whatever the Tigers are trying to do on defense simply isn't working as they have surrendered over 47 points per game and have already allowed more points in just six games than the defense did in five of the last six years for an entire season, and with four games left in the regular season have already allowed the fourth most points in a season in the last 18 years. I know the coaching staff works hard to make sure the right players are in the right positions and that the game plan is one that they feel gives the team its best chance to win. However, until the Tigers can begin to keep their opponents out of the endzone the offense will be saddled with having to win offensive shootouts, and so far that obviously hasn't worked.

Even though Elba is 0-6 and sits at the bottom of the region standings with an 0-3 region record, the Tigers are still mathematically alive in their fight for a playoff berth. McKenzie sits atop the standings and appears to be on its way to claiming its second straight region title, while Brantley and Georgiana are battling for the next two spots, with all five remaining teams, including Elba, fighting for the number four spot and a trip to the playoffs. If Elba can run the board in its last four region games the Tigers would finish with a 4-3 slate, and with regular season games left against Red Level, Pleasant Home, Georgiana and Florala, even the most pessimistic fan will admit it is a possibility. Everything is dependent on Elba winning its last four games, but after looking at the schedules of the teams in the region I can see Red Level and Pleasant Home finishing with five region losses and Kinston ending the season with four region losses. Florala could very well end the season with just three losses, but that would put it in a tie with Elba with a 4-3 record, and the Tigers would get the tie-breaker with their win over the Wildcats in their head-to-head match-up. I know it may sound a little crazy, but crazier things have happened and we have to remember that a football can take some crazy bounces!

 It wasn't the busiest of weeks for teams in the area with Zion Chapel getting the week off, but that didn't mean there wasn't excitement for the teams that did play as New Brockton upped its record to 4-2 with a 20-12 win over Monroe County and Kinston lost in the final seconds for the second straight week in a 30-26 loss to Samson. New Brockton had a little harder time than expected in taking down a Monroe County team that has won only six games over the past five years, but the Gamecocks got the job done to claim their fourth win in six games as they prepare to close the season against three of the top teams in the region in Ashford, Straughn and Pike County. Kinston lost two weeks ago to Georgiana when it allowed a touchdown pass with just four seconds left in the game, and Friday night saw lightning strike again when Samson threw a touchdown pass with just three seconds left on the clock to hand the snake-bit Bulldogs their second straight last-second loss.

 The biggest news of the week in the high school football circles was Williamson's 100-0 win over hapless Murphy, but there was a lot of other news in all classifications, and this week I thought I'd just throw an interesting tidbit out there in each class for everyone to munch on to keep them from starving for sports stories since the baseball season has ended for all the Braves fans. (Class 1A) The Sweet Water Bulldogs and Elba Tigers have combined for 1,233 wins and 18 state championships during their long runs atop the small school football world, but the 2025 season may not find its way into the history books of either team since they have struggled to a combined record of 1-10 and both sit at the bottom of their regions with 0-3 records. (Class 2A) Luverne remained unbeaten last week with a 48-45 win over previously undefeated Montgomery Academy and in just five games has scored 311 points, which after just five games is the second most points scored in five of the last six seasons. Former Elba Tiger Bobby Hudson, in his second season at Luverne, has the Tigers growling, again. (Class 3A) Wicksburg struggled to a 17-16 record the last three seasons, but won for the fourth time in five weeks last weekend for its fourth win of the season as its record moved to 4-2 on the year. Maybe the success of the softball team has inspired the Panthers on the gridiron. (Class 4A) Geneva suffered its 16th straight loss last week in a loss to previously winless Slocomb, which left the Panthers with a 3-22 record the last three years. It has been a long time since back in 1998-2000 when Coach Leavy Boutwell led Geneva to a 32-4 record over a three-year stretch and from 2004-2006 when Mike McCombs led it to a 32-5 three-year slate. The Panthers have now posted only three winning seasons in the last 18 years. Up in Union Springs, Bullock County sits at 5-0 at the midway point in the season after a win over Tallassee, and it looks like it may be headed for only its second winning season since way back in 1972. (Class 5A) Carroll High, in Ozark, is headed for its eighth straight losing season after falling to 0-6 last week with a loss to Pike County. The Eagles posted a combined record of 23-2 back in 2016-2017 under Coach Roger McDonald, but have definitely been flying low for the last eight seasons. Over in Greenville, the once powerhouse Tigers are 1-4 at the midway point in the season, have claimed just nine wins in the last four seasons and are in the midst of their third one-win season in the last four years. (Class 6A) Russell County remained unbeaten last week with a 44-34 win over Valley, and it looks like a banner season for a team that over the last dozen years has posted three no-win seasons, one one-win season, two two-win seasons and three three-win seasons. (Class 7A) Smiths Station was within two wins of a state title back in 2013 when Coach Mark Rose led his team to a 10-3 record, but there hasn't been much to cheer about lately as it has posted only two winning records the past twelve years and over the past four years has a combined record of 3-33.

 I'm not really that big a college football fan, but I do enjoy listening to and reading about what the fans of the three schools I follow write and say after games. This week was another fun week to sit back and be a fly on the wall as Alabama and Auburn both had key conference games. In my opinion, the folks up at Auburn need to just calm down and wait for the Tigers to take that next step after two straight losses. The fans got way too excited after three easy wins over out-matched opponents and are now way too worried because they lost two straight SEC games against very good teams. Auburn had a chance to win both games on their final drives, but didn't get it done and all the sudden the fans and the media are ready to write the season and the coach off. If I were an Auburn fan I would definitely be worried about the play of its offense and its $1.6 million quarterback, but the team is still very dangerous and one no team in the SEC will look forward to playing. As for Alabama, the Crimson Tide pulled a few surprises on Georgia in the first half and grabbed the lead, and while it didn't score in the second half, the defense made it hold up. As a Bama fan I will admit it was a good win on the road against a very good team, but championships are won over the course of a season and not just one win, and at Alabama it's all about winning championships. Yea, the Tide has won three straight since its embarrassing loss at Florida State. However, I still get worried every week, no matter the opponent, and will until it begins to grow into the power we all expect. Heck, I guess I am just as spoiled as many other Bama fans.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator emailed his picks in this week after another solid 22-8 slate and in his notes insisted there were still plenty of surprises left this season for area fans. The local guesspert cut back a little and stayed more with local teams in this week's fearless forecast, but is confident of his picks and wrote he would be at homecoming Friday night looking for the Tigers to break into the win column. Here goes….

ELBA V. RED LEVEL

The Pea River felines will be looking to hang up their first win of the season on the scoreboard and give the alumni lots to cheer about this week, but a litter of kitties from across the county line have grown up in recent weeks and will have something to say about just how much fun can be expected at the dance. Turn on the music!

ELBA 26 RED LEVEL 22

KINSTON VS. FLORALA

The bulldogs from down near the county line are trying to figure out a way to knock about ten seconds off the clock this week after watching wins slip out of their hands in the final seconds two weeks in a row. A big region win would be just what the doctor ordered for the snake bit dogs, but it may not arrive this week.

FLORALA 28 KINSTON 26

ZION CHAPELVS. PIKE LIB

The troops from up at Fort Jack will get back to work this week after a week off and will be looking to snap a three-game skid when it takes the field against some troopers from up above the round-about. This game looked like a must-win in preseason talk, but now looks like a big win for the troops as they stay focused on a trip to the post-season party.

ZION CHAPEL 34 PIKE LIB 10

NEW BROCKTON VS. GENEVA

The roosters from up behind the truck stop have been crowing all week after a big homecoming win and this week have been strutting around the coop waiting to get back on the field against a litter of kitties that are hungry for a win. If the roosters aren't ready this one could be a lot closer than many think.

Elba Tigers look to celebrate homecoming in region clash against Red Level Tigers

The Elba Tigers will kick off their 'second season' Friday night and will be looking to begin a run to the playoffs when they begin a four-game region schedule against the Red Level Tigers, on Mack Wood Field, in Elba.

Elba will bring an 0-6 record into the contest, including an 0-3 region slate, while Red Level will enter the game with a 3-2 record and owns a 1-2 region slate.

Elba leads the series 8-1, won last season 46-6, and last lost to Red Level way back in 1925 in a low-scoring 7-6 defensive struggle.

Elba will begin a four game region schedule with the Friday night clash and still have hopes of making a fifth straight trip to the playoffs with a clean sweep past their region rivals. The Tigers are averaging 19.1 points per game and have scored twenty points, or more, in their last four games, but are allowing 46.9 points per game.

Red Level has already won its most games in three years and owns wins over J.F. Shields 48-12, Kinston 29-22 and LaFayette 24-20, while losing to region rivals Brantley 36-20 and Pleasant Home 26-22. The Tigers from Covington County have not posted a winning record since 2006 and have not participated in the playoffs since 2010.

Homecoming festivities will begin at 6:30 pm with the presentation of the Queen and Homecoming Court, to be followed at 7:00 pm with the kickoff.

Tigers outscored by Goshen 48-21

The Elba Tigers fell behind early and never caught up Friday night in a 48-21 road loss to the Goshen Eagles.

Elba fumbled on two of its first three offensive series and Goshen took advantage of the Tiger turnovers to jump out to an early 17-0 lead. The first Eagle score came on a 15-yard run by Jaylon Vinson with 8:54 remaining in the first quarter that capped off a three-play, 62-yard drive, while Zion Picatoste booted a 33-yard field goal with 4:25 left in the quarter to push the lead to 10-0, and Grant Taylor scored on a 4-yard run with 2:14 remaining to cap a short 17-yard scoring drive as the Eagles upped their first quarter lead to 17-0.

A 16-yard touchdown toss from Taylor to Ja'Sarius Burney with 10:56 left in the second quarter capped a four-play, 59-yard drive as Goshen's lead grew to 23-0, and Vinson scored his second td of the half with 5:38 remaining on the clock as the Eagles opened up a big 31-0 lead.

Elba's offense had managed only two yards in total offense and committed two turnovers on its first five possessions of the half, but came to life late in the second quarter and marched 80 yards in eight plays to get on the scoreboard. A 21-yard pass completion from Easton McKelvy to Jaden Baker was a key play in the long scoring drive, while the Tiger touchdown came when Cassidy Carpenter took a handoff on a draw play and raced 61 yards down the sidelines with 54-seconds left on the clock. Laquatos Edwards kicked the extra-point, as Elba pulled within 31-7 at intermission.

Any hopes of an Elba comeback died quickly in the third quarter as Goshen scored seventeen unanswered points to take a 48-7 lead. Goshen's first score of the third quarter came on a 29-yard td toss from Grant Taylor to Jumari Flowers with 9:32 left in the quarter, and after Zion Picatoste boomed a 39-yard field goal with 3:36 left in the clock, the Eagles Ja'Sarius Burney picked off an Elba pass and returned the interception 82 yards for a score as Goshen's lead jumped to 48-7 with 24-seconds still left in the quarter.

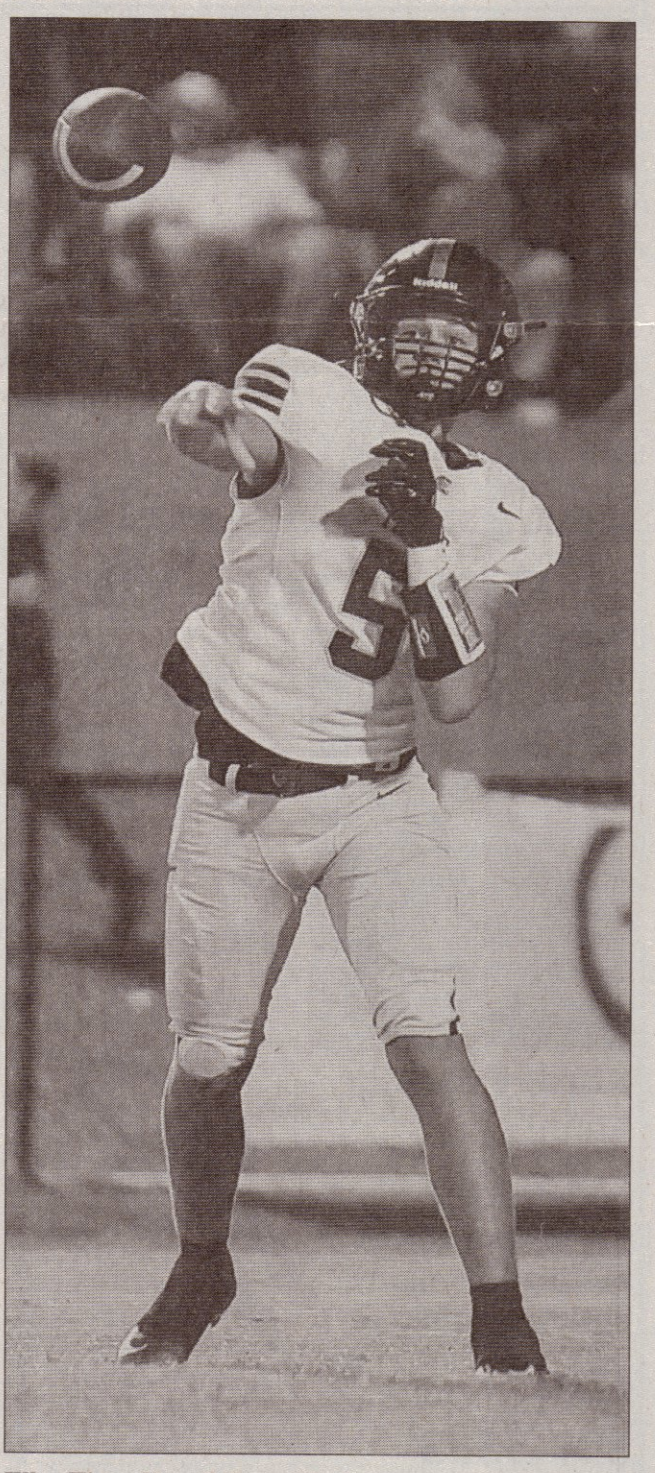
Elba put together a 60-yard, eight-play scoring drive on its ensuing possession after the Eagles sixth touchdown of the night to again make the scoreboard lights flicker. Cassidy Carpenter rushed for 21 yards on three carries to help lead the Tigers down the field, while Powell Bane added 12 yards rushing on three carries and connected with Jaden Baker with a 14-yard td toss for the score. Edwards added the extra-point as Elba cut the deficit to 48-14 with 8:38 left in the fourth quarter.

Elba began its final possession of the game at its own 10-yardline after Goshen's only punt of the night, and marched 90 yards in seven plays get back into the endzone. A 35-yard scamper by Laquatos Edwards got the drive off to fast start, and while Cassidy Carpenter added a 27-yard run, Powell Bane completed a 12-yard pass to Dylan Holley and rushed for 20 yards on three carries and scored the Tiger touchdown on a 1-yard run with 1:12 remaining on the clock. Edwards booted the extra-point, and at the final horn it was the Eagles that owned the 48-21 win.

Cassidy Carpenter rushed for 126 yards and one touchdown on 11 carries to lead the Elba ground attack, while Laquatos Edwards rushed for 32 yards on three carries and Powell Bane rushed for 32 yards and one td on six carries and completed 5 of 11 passes, with three interceptions, for 77 yards and one touchdown. Jaden Baker had 4 catches for 72 yards and one score to lead the Elba receivers.

Garrett Hill had eight tackles to lead the Tiger defense, while Skylar Mitchell added five stops and Earl Tolentino and Caden Kyles had four stops, apiece.

Elba Tiger Cassidy Carpenter (7) eyes an opening in the line and heads for a big gain in last week's clash against Goshen. Carpenter rushed for 126 yards and one touchdown in the 48-21 road loss to the Eagles.



Elba Tiger Powell Bane (5) fires a pass in last week's road loss to Goshen. Bane passed for 77 yards and one td and rushed for a td in the 48-21 loss to the Eagles.

Pardon the Kinston Bulldogs if they refuse to attend the homecoming dance! After losing its own homecoming game two weeks ago on a last-second touchdown pass, the Kinston Bulldogs saw it happen again on homecoming at Samson Friday night when the Samson Tigers completed a pass with three seconds left in the game to hand the Bulldogs a stunning 30-26 loss.

Samson received the opening kickoff and went 49 yards in six plays to grab an early 8-0 lead. Brodi Mock completed a 16-yard pass to Colton Shelton to help lead the Tigers down the field, while Payton Howerton capped the drive with a 2-yard run. Kelin Hornsby ran in the two-point conversion to put Samson on top 8-0 with 10:00 left in the first quarter.

Samson began its third possession at its own 31-yardline after a Kinston punt and this time went 69 yards in 12 plays to extend its lead. A 14-yard run by Shelton sparked the long scoring march, while Mock went back to the air and hit Hornsby with a 16-yard touchdown toss. Hunter Lamb ran in the two-point conversion as the Tigers lead grew to 16-0 with 8:42 left in the second quarter.

Kinston's Evan Hilburn recovered a Samson fumble near midfeld late in the quarter and the turnover seemed to pump life into the Bulldog offense as it responded with a 49-yard drive to get on the scoreboard. Jon Simmons rushed for 44 yards on three carries to spark the scoring drive and scored the Kinston touchdown on a 36-yard run. A two-point pass missed its target, but with 3:16 left in the half the Bulldogs had pulled within 16-6.

Hilburn recovered another Tiger fumble at the Samson 34-yardline in the closing minutes of the half and the Bulldogs again cashed in the turnover. Judd Green rushed for 10 yards on three carries to help lead Kinston toward the endzone, with the score coming on a 12-yard pass from Jon Simmons to Green with just seven-seconds left on the clock. A two-point run failed to add points. However, Kinston went in at the half trailing only 16-12 after the gallant second quarter rally.

Kinston received the second half kickoff and after a 17-yard kickoff return by Logan Lashley went 48 yards in eight running plays to take the lead. Jon Simmons rushed for 24 yards on three carries and Judd Green rushed for 21 yards on three carries during the scoring drive, and it was Green that scored the Bulldog touchdown on a 3-yard run. A two-point run again failed, but with 8:17 left in the third quarter Kinston was on top 18-16.

Kinston regained possession at its own 24-yardline after a defensive stand and this time went 76 yards in nine running plays to extend its lead. Simmons rushed for 42 yards on four carries and Green added 33 yards on four carries during the march, with Simmons capping the drive with a 1-yard scoring run. Green ran in the two-point conversion as Kinston stretched its lead to 26-16 with 11:11 left in the fourth quarter.

Samson came back to life following the Kinston score and went 79 yards in nine plays to cut into the deficit. Gus Revels rushed for 29 yards on five carries to spark the scoring march, while the Tiger touchdown came on a 34-yard pass from Brodi Mock to Hunter Lamb. Mock passed to Evan Wells on the two-point conversion, and with 7:45 left on the clock Kinston's lead stood at 26-24.

Kinston fumbled at the Samson 44-yardline with 37-seconds left on the clock and the Tigers took advantage of the turnover to send the homecoming crowd home happy, as Mock completed three of five passes for 49 yards, including a 21-yard touchdown toss to Kelin Hornsby with just three seconds left on the clock as Samson stunned the Bulldogs 30-26.

Jon Simmons rushed for 137 yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries and Judd Green rushed for 75 yards and one td on 21 carries and caught three passes for 21 yards and one td to lead Kinston.

Brodi Mock passed for 250 yards and three touchdowns to lead Samson, with Kelin Hornsby pulling in nine passes for 120 yards and two td's, Colton Shelton pulling in six passes for 90 yards and Hunter Lamb pulling in three passes for 40 yards and one td.

Kinston Bulldog Judd Green (9) burts through a hole at the line of scrimmage and heads upfield for a big gain in last week's loss to Samson.

Brockton hangs on to down Monroe County 20-12

Statistics by, Brandon White; Photos by, Linda Hodge and New Brockton High School

The New Brockton Gamecocks jumped out to an early 20-0 lead and turned back a late Monroe County threat to tame the Tigers 20-12 and send a large homecoming crowd home happy, Friday night at Gamecock Stadium.

New Brockton received the opening kickoff and promptly marched 63 yards in six plays to grab an early lead. A 21-yard touchdown toss from Wesley Creel to Noah Moore capped the drive, and while the extra-point attempt failed, the Gamecocks were on top 6-0 with 8:43 left in the first quarter.

The Gamecocks Noah Moore blocked a Monroe County punt to set the New Brockton offense up at the Tigers 31-yardline to begin its next possession, and eight plays later Creel connected with Cayden Wallace on a 16-yard scoring pass to extend its early advantage. Creel ran in the two-point conversion, and with 34-seconds left in the opening quarter the Gamecocks owned a 14-0 lead.

A bad snap on a Monroe County punt was recovered by the Gamecocks Peyton Collins to give the ball back to New Brockton at the Tigers 29-yardline early in the second quarter, and New Brockton cashed in the turnover on a 29-yard touchdown pass from Creel to Anthony Silar as the Gamecocks lead grew to 20-0 with 10:19 left in the half.

Monroe County stunned the Gamecocks on its ensuing possession when it got on the scoreboard on a 76-yard pass from Jaden Howard to Jermaine Bullard, and when New Brockton failed to score late in the half after reaching the Tigers 5-yardline, the Gamecocks carried a 20-6 lead in at intermission.

The first four possessions of the second half all ended in punts, but Monroe County's offense used another explosive play to pull within 20-12 within 11:40 remaining in the fourth quarter when Jaylen Sanders broke loose on a 90-yard scoring scamper.

Neither team threatened again in the quarter, as New Brockton held on and claimed the 20-12 homecoming win to improve its record to 4-2.

Wesley Creel completed 11 of 27 passes for 147 yards and three touchdowns to spark the New Brockton offense, with Anthony Silar pulling in five catches for 71 yards and one touchdown, Cayden Wallace pulling in one pass for 16 yards and one td, and Noah Moore pulling in one pass for 21 yards and one td. Bryant Crumpler rushed for 33 yards on 13 carries and Conner Leuci added 18 yards on 10 carries to lead the ground game.

Bryant Crumpler made 10 tackles, had one forced fumble and one tackle for a loss to spark the Gamecock defense, while Peyton Collins had 6 stops and a fumble recovery, and Noah Moore had 5 stops and a blocked punt.

What does the Bible say about... Assembling to Worship?

Article written by Douglas Williams

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together" (Hebrews 10:25).

The early Christians "continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers" (Acts 2:42).

The New Testament reveals that Christians in biblical times met regularly on the first day of the week to worship God, as well as at other times for study, prayer, encouragement, and teaching others about salvation (Acts 2:46-47; 20:7; 1 Corinthians 14:23; 16:2).

David said, "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord (Psalm 122:1). This should be our attitude as well because the principle of faithful and regular attendance is clearly taught in God's word. For example, Jesus said, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you" (Matthew 6:33). The Bible says, "Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin" (James 4:17).

Christians should look forward to meeting with other Christians and with the Lord. Jesus said, "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them" (Matthew 18;20).

Regardless of how many good works a person might do, it will not take the place of regular, faithful attendance with the church. We read in Acts chapter 10, Cornelius was such a good man and did many good works, but was in a lost condition. He had to be told by God's preacher, Peter, what he must do to be saved.

Sometimes people ask if they are required to attend all the church services. When we seriously consider the teachings of the Bible, we can see that this is the wrong attitude. We should want to attend every service possible. It is hard to imagine a person living in Heaven when they haven't wanted to worship and praise God here on earth.

Our salvation and all spiritual blessings are in Christ. When we think of God's great blessings to us, we should be glad to give him first place in our lives.

All Christians have an appointment to meet with the Lord each week! Jesus promises "be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life" (Rev. 2:10). Being faithful unto death includes regular attendance at the worship services, unless providentially (beyond our control) hindered.

Living Free or Return to Bondage

Maria Jeronimo died in June of 2000. She was considered by many to be the oldest woman in the world at the time of her death. She was not recognized as such by the Guinness Book of Records, since the publication requires a birth certificate or other irrefutable evidence. However, church records indicated that Jeronimo was 129 years old when she died. Jeronimo had been born a slave in Brazil and was emancipated at the age of seventeen in 1888 when that nation became the last country in the Western hemisphere to abolish slavery. But even as a free woman, Jeronimo continued to live in the same locale as before, doing the same kind of housemaid's work as she had done before she was freed. Freedom did not erase the memories of slavery from Maria's mind. Even in her old age, she could recall life as a slave. The rapes, the frequent sicknesses, the families torn apart. Even after her mind faded in the last months of her life, her scarred back still bore testimony to the beatings she had received from her masters more than a century earlier. In her last interview(at the age of 127), she said that she only had one wish left:"Now I just want to see God." Maria Jeronimo was looking forward, she had no reason to go back. When it comes to the slavery part of sin, we carry with us the scars of our past. Strangely, many whom Christ has emancipated find themselves going back into the yolk of bondage instead of looking forward to the blessings and rewards of freedom that God has prepared for us. C.R.B
